

CENTRAL COAST REGIONAL DISTRICT
POLICIES

A-17(a) - Donations and Bequests in Conjunction with an Emergency Event

Preamble: The Central Coast Regional District recognizes and appreciates that members of the public, special interest groups, community groups, its corporate citizens, or others, may wish to make an unsolicited donation or bequest to assist residents of the Central Coast Regional District in conjunction with an emergency event.

Policy: The Central Coast Regional District welcomes and accepts unsolicited donations and bequests in relation to emergency events that are offered as follows:

- Donations and bequests are to be submitted to the attention of the Central Coast Regional District’s office in Bella Coola or alternatively, to the regional district’s account at the Williams Lake and District Credit Union.
- Donations and bequests must be monetary and ~~must be~~ unconditional with respect to how, when, or where the funds are to be utilized, which will be determined at the discretion of the Chief Administrative Officer. ~~The specific purpose for which the funds will be utilized remains at the discretion of the Central Coast Regional District.~~

Unsolicited donations and bequests for emergency events that fall outside of the above parameters may only be accepted if authorized by the Chief Administrative Officer.

Adopted Date: November 14, 2013

RATIONALE:

This NEW policy is put forward to the board of directors for consideration of adoption in response to the 2010 flooding event. Should and emergency event occur in the future, the regional district be in a position to respond immediately and efficiently to the offers of various forms of assistance.

Board Meeting
NOV 14 2013
CCRD ITEM E(F)